

LLANERCH COUNTRY CLUB

Llanerch Country Club is in Havertown, PA 19083. The course was built in 1901. It was fully renovated in 2004. The greens, tees and fairways are all bentgrass. Llanerch has a long and storied history. It was the site of Byron Nelson's 7th out of 11 consecutive PGA Tour victories in 1945. It was also the location of Dow Finsterwald's 1958 PGA Championship victory. In the last 10 years, it has hosted many events including the Philadelphia Amateur, the Philadelphia Open and the Philadelphia PGA Section Championship. Llanerch will be the host of the 2022 Pennsylvania Amateur. We are also in the process of engaging in a new Golf Course Master Plan with Golf Course Architect Brian Schneider with a proposed $2.6 million budget to tentatively start October of 2019.

POSITION: Assistant Golf Course Superintendent. Llanerch Country Club is looking for a highly motivated and talented individual to continue the tradition of providing daily "Championship qualities" conditions. The position is great chance to learn and improve the skills needed to become a successful Golf Course Superintendent in the future. The position will require the person to make pesticide and fertilizer applications, manage staff and projects and effectively understand quality water management practices. Former Assistants from Llanerch have a long history of becoming Golf Course Superintendents. What also makes the position unique is that Llanerch has two other Assistants Superintendents and they all rotate to be responsible for only every third weekend all year-round including summers. Llanerch's summer staff is constituted with mainly well trained H2b visa employees who have been part of the team for over 14years.

EXPERIENCE: Have at least two years' experience as greenkeeper in a managerial role.

BENEFITS: 401k after one year. Medical and dental coverage, sick and personal time off after the first 60 days of full time employment. Uniforms and lunch will be provided. The position also comes with 3 bedroom and three bathroom house off the 2nd tee. Dues paid for both the GCSAA and PAGCS.

SALARY: $47,000-$59,000 depending on experience

STARTING DATE: November 26th, 2018 or at a date that suitable to all parties.
