TPC Jasna Polana, located in Princeton, NJ, is looking for an intern to learn and assist in the Golf Course Maintenance department. The internship dates will be from April 1 – September 30, 2019.

TPC Jasna Polana is a private par-72, 7,089-yard championship golf course situated on 230 acres of breathtaking countryside in the heart of Princeton, N.J. The Gary Player designed golf course is the centerpiece to a unique private club boasting a variety of golf, dining, and hospitality amenities in a pristine natural setting. This New Jersey golf course also features a 3.5-acre practice facility and a 60,000 square-foot practice tee, four putting greens and practice bunkers.

The Golf Course Maintenance Internship Program is designed to provide turf management or agronomy college students with a practical, hands-on learning experience in golf course maintenance operations, agronomic plan management and professional golf tournament preparation. TPCs offer interns the unique opportunity to develop a diverse array of skills in the maintenance of both tournament and non-tournament playing conditions.

The Program offers candidates the opportunity to gain the supervised work experience necessary to become Assistant Golf Superintendents. Students will be introduced to the agronomic elements of golf course maintenance as well as such critical concepts as personnel management, financial management, equipment operation and maintenance, maintenance facility organization and upkeep, fertilizer and pesticide application techniques, pesticide laws and regulations, member and guest communication, and environmental stewardship, among others.

Qualified applicants must:

- be enrolled in or a recent graduate of a 2 or 4 year turfgrass management program.
