

Rutgers Turf Research Farm
20 Indyk-Engel Way, North Brunswick, NJ 08902

Spring & Summer jobs at Hort Farm 2 Research Facility

Home to the Center of Turf Science
Breeding & Management Research of Golf & Athletic Field Turfgrass

We are currently looking for Student workers who could start immediately hours are flexible throughout the summer.

Job Qualifications:

Valid Drivers License for minimum of 2 years.

Should be able to lift and carry 40 pounds.

Should not have severe allergy to pollen or poison ivy.

Must be willing to work in an environment in which pesticides are applied. Should be able to tolerate working outdoors in hot, humid, or dusty conditions.

Job Expectations:

Following the daily action plan for mowing turf research fields and reporting any problems that may arise.

Setup irrigation equipment on research fields and insure adequate coverage and log applications.

Fertilizer application and determining rates of material applied and properly record applications.

Manage landscaped areas around buildings including weeding, mulching & pruning.

Work in the farm shop assisting with the management of the equipment and keep records up to date.

Survey fields that will be renovated this season to determine if they are the sizes that they were before the renovations started.

Must be detail orientated.

Salary: $15.49 possibly higher based on experience.

Date Job is Available: May 1, 2025

Please email your resume to:

Joseph Clark

Research Farm Supervisor

Rutgers Turf Research Farm #2

20 Indyk-Engel Way, North Brunswick Twp., 08902

jclark@njaes.rutgers.edu

732-289-8598